BENEFITING CATHEDRAL CITY SENIOR CENTER

We don't age here, we thrive here. The Cathedral City Senior Center promotes healthy living, independence, and wellness by stimulating the body and mind in an open-minded and inclusive environment. Hang out. Make friends. Get connected.

SPONSOR OPPORTUNITIES

Dear Friend,

The Cathedral City Senior Center means a lot of different things to a lot of different people. But to all our members, it means home. The center is a welcoming place to get connected, make new friends, and stay active and engaged. We don't age here, we thrive here. By promoting healthy living, independence, and wellness in an open-minded and inclusive environment, we are redefining what it means to be a senior.

Our gala fundraiser, A Night To Remember, will be held Tuesday, November 1, 2022 at Agua Caliente Rancho Mirage. The gala will raise much needed funds to help Cathedral City Senior Center grow the critically needed programs that improve the quality of life for seniors 55+ living in Cathedral City and surrounding communities.

Your sponsorship, table or ticket purchase, or donation of a unique gift or experience for our live auction would truly be appreciated. In addition to a charitable contribution (Tax I.D. 95-3618489) and recognition on marketing collateral, your donation is also an opportunity to build and promote brand recognition among the 300+ high-capacity donors, business and community leaders attending the event.

In this booklet you'll find a form to complete and return with your gift. We ask that all live auction items be received by October 1st for appropriate recognition. Thank you for joining us in advancing the quality of life for the many seniors who call Cathedral City Senior Center home. To learn more about our mission and plans for growth, please visit theccsc.org.

Gratefully,

Jody Watley

Grammy winner and three-time Grammy nominee Jody Watley; multi-platinum singer/songwriter/producer/independent label owner, National Museum of African American Music Inductee, and style icon is one of the architects of 21st-century Pop/R&B/Dance music.

From her groundbreaking marriage of rap & R&B (1987's "Friends," a collaboration with hip-hop legends Eric B. & Rakim) which featured a blend of voguing and b-boy club kids, transgender New York icons Connie Fleming and Codie Ravioli Leone to her vision-forward marriage of high fashion, street fashion, and music in the '80s (long before it became the norm), to her fusion of jazz and underground club culture with keen pop instincts, and the ease with which she crossed and still crosses genre, Watley forged the template that is now everybody's playbook.

To date as a solo artist: Six Hot 100 Singles, 15 Top 40 Singles, 13 #1 Dance Singles, 2 #1 R&B Singles, including classics "Looking For A New Love," "Don't You Want Me," "Everything," and "Real Love."

The 2021 Inductee at The National Museum of African American Music Winner is listed as one of Billboard Magazine's Top Female Artists and Top Dance Artists of All Time; winner of the prestigious Best New Artist Grammy in 1987, Jody Watley's entire career has been about looking forward, drawing inspiration from personal heroes and iconoclasts always ten steps ahead of the pack since her days as the original female lead and sound of the group Shalamar. A longtime advocate of the LGBTQ community, the Chicago native's eclectic repertoire – R&B, hip-hop, House, jazz, pop, drum & bass, ambient, spoken-word – is built on a positive vision and a strong taste for artistic and aesthetic.
